FOREWORD

Institutional Research & Planning is pleased to present the Boston College Fact Book, 2019-2020, the 47th edition of this publication.

This book is intended as a single, readily accessible, consistent source of information about the Boston College community, its resources, and its operations. It is a summary of institutional data gathered from many areas of the University, compiled to capture the 2018-2019 Fiscal and Academic Year, and the fall semester of the 2019-2020 Academic Year. Where appropriate, multiple years of data are provided for historical perspective. While not all-encompassing, the Fact Book does provide pertinent facts and figures valuable to administrators, faculty, staff, and students.

Sincere appreciation is extended to all contributors who offered their time and expertise to maintain the greatest possible accuracy and standardization of the data. Special thanks go to Allison Reilly and Olivia Szendey for their extensive contributions. A concerted effort is made to make this publication an increasingly more useful reference, at the same time enhancing your understanding of the scope and progress of the University. We welcome your comments and suggestions toward these goals.

This Fact Book, as well as those from previous years, is available in its entirety at bc.edu/factbook.

THE MISSION OF BOSTON COLLEGE

Strengthened by more than a century and a half of dedication to academic excellence, Boston College commits itself to the highest standards of teaching and research in undergraduate, graduate and professional programs and to the pursuit of a just society through its own accomplishments, the work of its faculty and staff, and the achievements of its graduates. It seeks both to advance its place among the nation's finest universities and to bring to the company of its distinguished peers and to contemporary society the richness of the Catholic intellectual ideal of a mutually illuminating relationship between religious faith and free intellectual inquiry.

Boston College draws inspiration for its academic and societal mission from its distinctive religious tradition. As a Catholic and Jesuit university, it is rooted in a world view that encounters God in all creation and through all human activity, especially in the search for truth in every discipline, in the desire to learn, and in the call to live justly together. In this spirit, the University regards the contribution of different religious traditions and value systems as essential to the fullness of its intellectual life and to the continuous development of its distinctive intellectual heritage.

Boston College pursues this distinctive mission by serving society in three ways:

- by fostering the rigorous intellectual development and the religious, ethical, and personal formation of its undergraduate, graduate, and professional students in order to prepare them for citizenship, service and leadership in a global society;
- by producing nationally and internationally significant research that advances insight and understanding, thereby both enriching culture and addressing important societal needs; and
- by committing itself to advance the dialogue between religious belief and other formative elements of culture through the intellectual inquiry, teaching and learning, and the community life that form the University.

Boston College fulfills this mission with a deep concern for all members of its community, with a recognition of the important contribution a diverse student body, faculty and staff can offer, with a firm commitment to academic freedom, and with a determination to exercise careful stewardship of its resources in pursuit of its academic goals.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College was founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863 and, with three teachers and 22 students, opened its doors on September 5, 1864. Through its first seven decades, it remained a small undergraduate institution, offering the sons of Boston's Irish working class a rigorous course load in theology and philosophy, classical languages, rhetoric, math, and science.

Originally located on Harrison Avenue in Boston's South End, the College outgrew its urban setting early in the 20th century and moved to the former Lawrence Farm in Chestnut Hill, where ground was broken on June 19, 1909 for the construction of a central Recitation Building, later named Gasson Hall in honor of President Thomas I. Gasson, S.J., who led the relocation. The Recitation Building opened in March 1913. The three other buildings that still shape the core of the campus—St. Mary's Hall, Devlin Hall, and Bapst Library—opened in 1917, 1924, and 1928, respectively.

Though incorporated as a university since its founding, Boston College did not begin to fill out the dimensions of its university charter until the 1920s, with the inauguration of a graduate program in arts and sciences, the Law School and the Evening College, today called the James A. Woods, S.J., College of Advancing Studies. The 1930s saw the introduction of the Graduate School of Social Work, now the Boston College School of Social Work, and the College of Business Administration—today the Wallace E. Carroll School of Management. The School of Nursing—named in honor of William F. Connell in 2003—and the School of Education—named in 1999 for Carolyn A. and Peter S. Lynch—followed in 1947 and 1952, respectively. The oldest and largest of the University's eight schools and colleges, the Robert J. Morrissey College of Arts and Sciences, was named in 2015 in honor of alumnus Robert J. Morrissey, Boston College's largest benefactor.

In 1974, Boston College acquired a 40-acre site, 1.5 miles from the Chestnut Hill Campus, which had been owned by Newton College of the Sacred Heart. The land is the present site of the Boston College Law School and of residence halls housing some 800 freshmen.

Thirty years later, the University acquired a 65-acre parcel from the Archdiocese of Boston, just across Commonwealth Avenue in Brighton. The Brighton Campus is now home to the School of Theology and Ministry, which was established in 2008, the Cadigan Alumni Center and the McMullen Museum of Art.

To honor its 150th anniversary in 2013, Boston College celebrated three semesters of activities, including a Mass at Fenway Park for 20,000 alumni, students, faculty, and friends, academic symposia, a naturalization ceremony, student and alumni service projects and a student concert at Symphony Hall.

In 2016, Boston College was elevated to an R1 institution by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, a designation for doctoral universities with the highest research activity, and concluded its Light the World Capital Campaign, having raised a record-breaking total of $1.605 billion in support of academic programs, student financial aid, faculty research, student formation initiatives, and capital projects.

In 2017, the University announced a new ten-year Strategic Plan, Ever to Excel: Advancing Boston College's Mission, which includes a commitment to liberal arts education, formation, research, and an increased presence and impact locally and globally.

In 2018, Boston College unveiled the Harrington Athletics Village, consisting of new baseball, softball and intramural fields on the Brighton Campus; the Fish Field House, an indoor practice facility alongside Alumni Stadium; and 300 Hammond Pond Parkway, a 25-acre parcel with administrative space and parking located in Chestnut Hill, approximately one mile from the BC main campus.

This year, construction began on the 150,000 square-foot integrated science building that will house the Schiller Institute for Integrated Science and Society, and on the Pete Frates Center, an indoor practice facility for BC baseball and softball, within the Harrington Athletics Village.

THE JESUIT COMMUNITY AT BOSTON COLLEGE

With 50 members, the Jesuit Community at Boston College is one of the larger apostolic communities of the Society of Jesus throughout the world. Twenty-seven Jesuit priests serve in the University as either full-time or part-time members of the administration, faculty, and staff. Many of them also offer Ignatian retreats and spiritual direction to faculty, staff, and students and also provide regular assistance to the diocesan church, both locally and nationally. Other Jesuits in residence include thirteen from ten countries around the world who are studying for graduate degrees at the University or at other institutions in the Boston area, four who are involved in ministries beyond the University, two who act as the Rector and Administrator of the Jesuit Community itself, and four who are retired professors.

St. Mary's Hall is the primary residence of the Jesuit Community, although some Jesuits live in six smaller residences around the perimeter of the campus. Three Jesuits live in student residence halls. And the Jesuits who staff St. Ignatius Church are members of the Jesuit Community at Boston College. For further details, see the Jesuit Community web page at <http://www.bc.edu/content/bc/sites/jesuit.html>.

THE SAINT PETER FABER JESUIT COMMUNITY AT BOSTON COLLEGE

With 63 members, the Saint Peter Faber Jesuit Community (FJC) is an international group of Jesuits whose main apostolate is theological reflection, scholarship, and research. FJC includes Priests, Scholastics, and Brothers who come to study and teach Theology, and to prepare for ministry. The Community is located on Foster Street, adjacent to the Boston College Brighton campus.

Together with the ecclesiastical faculty within the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry (BCSTM), FJC forms an Assistancy Apostolate that is accountable to the Jesuit Conference Board. The Major Superior is the President of the Jesuit Conference.

ENROLLMENT BY RACE/ETHNICITY, GENDER, AND CITIZENSHIP

Undergraduate Day Schools, Fall 2019

Note: The Higher Education Opportunities Act of 2008 resulted in changes to the manner in which race/ethnicity data are collected and reported. For this reason, three views are displayed in order to reflect the variety of ways in which race/ethnicity data may be presented.

Table 1: This table presents a headcount view of race/ethnicity data for students who select a single category; students who select more than one race/ethnicity appear in the “Two or More” category.

Single Race/Ethnicity	Men	Women	Total	Percent

Table 3: This table presents race/ethnicity data for U.S. Citizen or permanent resident students who chose to identify in any category. In that a student may be counted in more than one group, duplication may result and the % sum may be >100%.

Combined Single and Multiple Races/Ethnicity	Men	Women	Total	Percent

Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander	9	13	22	0.3%
White	3,003	3,476	6,479	78.4%
